Herndon, VA; 1-29-20: Mascot Books announces the release of Do You Like Blue Like I Like Blue? written by Kelly A. Hartmann and illustrated by Zephyr Art.

My name is Andrew, and I love the color blue. I've asked a lot of people, and they all love it, too! Do you like blue like I like blue? Come along with me, to see if you do!

Do You Like Blue Like I Like Blue? is a whimsical story that uses catchy rhymes and beautiful illustrations to take readers on a journey through all things blue. From the cow happily mooing at the farm to a scientist working diligently in her lab, it seems as though everyone likes blue! This adorable children's title is the perfect read for any child.

Author Kelly A. Hartmann has always had a passion for children's care and education. She got her start in children's care while living in Rhode Island, where she volunteered at the former L.A.D.D. center in Rhode Island, a residential home for those with intellectual and developmental disabilities and participated in many St. Jude walk/runs. After moving to San Diego in 2000, Kelly opened KinderCans©, a gift service for children in hospitals. She also opened and ran Babies to Butterflies©, a license home daycare center for 10 years. An avid writer, Kelly wrote satire briefly for Spoof.com, and served as the daycare writer in her area for the former Examiner.com. She is very excited for Do You Like Blue Like I Like Blue? to be released out into the world, and hopes that it is a story that children will continue to enjoy for years to come.
